AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"Yama" With an All Star Cast in Barre Next Friday.

A glance at the roster of the company that will present Mr. Alfred E. Aaron's successful Oriental musical comedy at the opera house on next Friday evening will convince the theatre goers of Barre that it is an all-star cast. The principal comedian is J. Clarence Harvey who will be long remembered for his excellent work as the Mayor in "His Honor The Mayor." Miss Georgia Bryton, the character comedienne of the company, created the original slave part in "The Chinese Honeymoon" company and was also featured with Jeff DeAngelis in "Fantasia." Miss Violet Colby, formerly prima donna with "The Chinese Honeymoon" company, occupies the same position with this company. Harby Stuart was formerly baritone with the "Piff Paff Puff" company, and Mr. Wm. Meyer was baritone with the Madam Shuman Heinek company. Other members of the company are equally well known to the patrons of musical comedy. One of the distinct features of the company will be Alfred E. Aaron's original dancing dolls, especially imported to this country from London for his musical shows. Mr. Aaron has given particular care to the selections of his chorus for this season's presentation of "Yama," and the girls, as well as being comely and well groomed, both on and off the stage, are all good singers and dancers.

CHELSEA

Archie L. Noyes, Popular Young Man, Died Last Friday Night.

Our community was greatly shocked and saddened Saturday morning by the announcement of the death of Archie L. Noyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Storrs P. Noyes, which occurred late Friday night, April 9. Death resulted after a very short illness from pneumonia.

Had he lived until May, he would have been twenty years old. Archie was the only child and to his parents, whose mainstay and great joy he was, the burden of grief is most crushing. He was a young man of good habits, of strong clean character, the light of the home and a general favorite with his associates.

The funeral was held from the house Monday at 1:30 p. m. The bearers were Frank Board, Earl Flanders, Don Richardson and Arthur Flanders.

The floral offerings were, a star of pink carnations from Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Noyes; bouquets of carnations from Chas. Hayward and family, Mrs. S. C. and Erma D. Noyes, Miss Ivis Richardson, Miss Gladys Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Roche, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flanders, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Emerson, Miss Gertrude Farnham, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Whitcomb; roses from Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Noyes; myrtle from Mr. and Mrs. Martin Collins; petunias from Mrs. Emma Cutler; roses and carnations from F. K. and E. L. Board.

OUT IN CALIFORNIA.

A Surprise Party in Honor of Former Barre Couple.

A Knowles, Cal. correspondent sends The Times an account of a surprise party given to a former Barre couple as follows:

"Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bernie of this place and formerly of Barre were tendered a pleasant surprise by a few of their friends on Saturday evening, April 3, and they were given a handsome silver tea service as a mark of the high esteem in which they are held. Stewart Neddie, also formerly of Barre, with an able speech, made the presentation, and Mr. Bernie feelingly responded."

"Refrainments were served and dancing was enjoyed. John Cameron, better known as 'Bob,' being the fiddler. Two features of the evening worthy of special mention were the duet sung by Mrs. Bernie and George Delgarno, entitled 'Fin ye gang awa fimmie!' and the able manner in which John Gibb stepped out the Highland Fling. As the time came hours were approaching the party broke up with all declaring that they had had a thorough good time."

DELIVERY DAY

Following the custom of some of the leading implement dealers in the south and west, I have decided to ask my customers who have given orders for farm machinery, to come after their goods April 23rd and 24th, at which time I will be prepared to give them of the largest and most complete stock of Farm Machinery ever shown in Barre. It will pay every farmer in Washington County to come here one or both of these days and see the machinery, whether he wants to buy or not. Factory representatives from different manufacturers will be here to show their goods, but they are all harmless and will not tear your clothes if you do not buy a thing. The curious visitor and the determined purchaser are alike welcome.
